

Chicago Daily Tribune

OFFICE IN THE TRIBUNE BUILDINGS, 33 CLARK STREET, NEXT DOOR SOUTH OF THE POST OFFICE.
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 14, 1883.

TERMS—EIGHT DOLLARS PER YEAR.
NEW SERIES—VOL. II.

REAL ESTATE SALES

WEDNESDAY

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

1883

LOCAL MATTERS.

CARD PRINTING.
We desire to say to Merchants, and the trading community generally, that we have facilities for printing 50,000 Cards Daily.

For the Princess
The Anniversary of that ever memorable event, the landing of the "Pilgrim Fathers" upon the rock-bound coast of New England, it is to be celebrated by the "New England Society," in a Festival, to be given at the Tremont House, on the 22d inst. It is an occasion upon which not only the natives of New England but every American will be interested, with more than any other interest, to the early history of our beloved country, and, with enthusiastic pride, can trace the progress of that little nation, which, though finding a home in the crannies of a rock, has been nourished and fostered by the spirit of liberty, until its roots have reached a depth and it has thus gradually expanded into

Your correspondent, in an article published on the 11th inst, has well remarked that it is an occasion on which "we pass in bright review before our minds the virtues of our ancestors, the customs of our native soil, the pleasures of our childhood, and submit ourselves anew to their influence."

The correspondent referred to has, however, not inquired relating to the article, "What results now for the civilization, which can readily be answered. The value of this, in the main, agrees with that correspondent in his views relating to the manner in which such a celebration should be conducted, at while different individuals in the society at large entertain some little diversity of sentiment, in this favored land, where freedom of opinion and independence of mind, are the leading characteristics, and in a society where all ness, and the greatest satisfaction, and determination to view, and feelings of others should be observed; and, in answer to his first query I only say that, while an "unwise or unfeeling" man, furnished by the Society, may be left to fight his individual to act in that respect according to the dictates of his own mind; and it is presumed that no descendant of the "Pilgrim Fathers," who hails from "the land of steady habits," will be guilty of any excess, nor is it necessary any New Englander to "over a brick in his eye" to remind him of the "ruins of his mother's" house.

In answer to the other suggestion of that correspondent, I have the pleasure of assuring him not decidedly that the facilities of the occasion will be lightened by the charming presence of a gentler sex, and their bright eyes and smiling lips will lend a double enchantment to the scene.

THE MESSRS. GANN have already sent out four excursions and rallies, suitable for the occasion.

Appropriate cash and apportion may be secured. If this is done, it is believed, will render the location of more such a desirable one.

ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

WE ARE TO HAVE A PARK.

Parks are called the lungs of a city. By our neglect we have almost lost the most important of our lungs. It is time to take to the city the breathing apparatus so facilities for the enjoyment of Lake Michigan. Dearborn is a city of large enough to be entitled to the name of a park or one of the City's lungs, it has a little to call.

But were we to have a genuine Park on the east side, one of several acres, where trees and may grow, and birds sing and children run amid the rich perfumes, and around which beautiful residences will spring up. We go for the sake of our city, and the Council are inspired with the spirit of such commendable enterprise, we would advise it to purchase ground for another park in the South Division, somewhere southward the American Car Factory. Within its that part of the City will be densely populated and much in need of a quiet breathing place. The whole lake shore for a mile North of the Car Works should be bought at once and turned into a Park.

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY FOR SALE—One of the most valuable pieces of property in our city for commercial purposes is offered for sale by the owner, Mr. E. C. Stowell, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns. It has a front of about 300 feet, and is 300 feet deep, extending through to Clark street. Through the middle of the city for the admission of vessels, which has a dockage in connection with the river 1500 feet.

For Mills, Machine shops, Manufacturers, Foundries, or warehouse, there is no better property the city.

MITCHELLS' CIRCULAR ATLAS.

This work, comprising maps of all the Kingdoms, Republics and States in the is now fully completed and is offered for sale in this city by Dr. Mearns, a gentleman who has spent several months in travelling through this State and Wisconsin, for the purpose of obtaining accurate information in relation to all of the new securities laid out, the rates of interest on all roads, whether projected, under contract or completed. Other information of the kind essential to an Atlas for the present year, which pretends to keep pace with the rapid growth of the west. The work is the masterpiece of the kind ever published in the United States, and should have an extensive sale.

The publishers have given the entire right for Wisconsin and Wisconsin to Dr. Mygatt, who remains in the city a few days, and may be reached at 53 Randolph St.

CUNAL NAVIGATION.

The trade by the Canal has nearly closed for the season, there being no clearances or arrivals yesterday, with the exception of two small

We take pleasure in calling attention to our card of Messrs Whitaker & Brothers, Grocers and Commission Merchants, 14 La Salle st.
 Our stock of pure liquors and groceries is large and complete, and those dealing with them in any way will find them to be gentlemen.

POLICE COURT.
 Before Judge Rogers. Tuesday morning.
 There was, as usual a large number of "D. A's" and this morning too were disposed of. The following were the cases:
 William Cherry, drunk and disorderly—$2.
 Henry Robinson, drunk and disorderly—$2nd Mary C. Brice, drunk and abusing her child—committed to jail.
 Joseph A. Gray, disorderly—$2nd and committed to jail.
 Robert Little, drunk on the sidewalk—$2nd

Michael McCallister, drunk and disorderly at 10 o'clock last night—fined $5 and 10 days to Bridewell.

THE
CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE

[illegible][illegible]